REMINISCENSES OF PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings Fron the Records Left by the Men Who Laid the Foundation of San Mateo County Institutions

Late on the evening of June 19, 1874, fire of a supposedly accidental origin, destroyed a number of outbuildings surrounding the palatial mansion of William C Ralston, near Belmont, causing a considerable financial loss. The bright reflection of the flames was plainly noticable in Redwood City, and under the impression that the scene of the fire, which presented the appearance of an extensive conflagration, a number of the people of Redwood started for the supposed location, and found their route of travel much longer than had been anticipated, the majority arriving too late to be of any assistance. In spite of the efforts of the employees, who sacrificed their own belongings in their efforts to save the valuable stock, a number of extensive barns and stables were consumed, the loss totaling upwards of $30,000 which was covered by a small amount of insurance.

At tee meeting of Bay View Lodge No. 109, I. O. O. F., on the evening of June 24, 1874, officers for the coming term were elected as follows: S. L. Knights, noble grand; P. P. Chamberlain, vice grand; John Shelley, recording secretary; T. W. Lathrop, treasurer; H. N. Nutting, permanent secretary; Geo. W. Fox, W. P. Wallace and A. McPherson, trustees.

At their meeting on the evening of June 30th, the members of Metamora Tribe, Inproved Order of Red Men, elected chiefs for the coming term as follows: A. Mills, sachem; William R. Thomas, senior sagamore; J. F. Murphy, junior sagamore; A. Underhill, keeper of wampum; J. A. Doutrick, chief of records; A. McPherson, Jr., prophet; G. A. Jacobus, F. Botsch and A. McPherson, trustees.

As had been the custom for many years, the people of San Mateo county did not fail to duly observe the National Holiday in 1874. In fact there were a number of celebrations in various parts of the county, almost every village observing the day in some manner. As usual the chief of the celebrations was held at Redwood City, where people from all parts of the county gathered for the occasion. There was the usual parade, under the direction of T. W. Lathrop as grand marshal, the chief feature of which was the turnout of the firemen who were assisted in their display by the new fire company of Menlo Park, which turned out with a goodly number of members. The usual literary exercises were held in the Germania Hall where the oration was delivered by Charles N. Fox. In the evening there was a ball at Germania Hall under the direction of P. P. Chamberlain, who did the honors as floormanager. For the first time in the history of celebrations in the town there were a number of accidents as the result of the large crowd in attendance at the celebration. Fortunately most of these were not serious, though one resulted in a fatality. Gwin, the 18-year-old son of J. C. Maynard, living near Menlo Park, was thrown from a fractious horse, sustaining a fracture of the skull and causing death within a few hours.

On the 1st of August the trustees of the Redwood City school district found their school accomodations so thoroughly over taxed that they determoned to erect an adddtional building on the school lot, near Jefferson street. The building decided upon was a one story structure, 30 by 60 feet, divided into two rooms, and so plannde that it would be possible to add another story at any time.

In the latter part of July, Pescadero Lodge of Odd Fellows, which had been instituted but a short time before, installed the following officers: B. Hayward, noble grand; F. S. Moorehead, vice grand; E. W. Thompson, recording secretary; M. D. Hopkins, treasurer.

During the summer of this year the Presbyterians of Menlo Park were busy with the erection of their church building, which when completed cost them something over $4000, the greater part of which was raised by subscription before the building was completed. This building was a wooden structure, 32 by 40 feet on the ground, and having an auditorium capable of seating about 200 people. One of the leading subscribers to the building fund was M. S. Latham, who gave $500 for the purpose. The building was finished in the latter part of September, and was dedicated on Sunday, the 4th of October, in the presence of a large congregation. The dedicatory service was conducted by Rev. John Hemphill, pastor of Calvary Church of San Francisco, assisted by Rev. S. P. Herron, the pastor of the church, and Rev. H. E. Jewett of this city. The dedicatory sermon aroused much enthusiasm, and when it was announced that $1300 was needed to clear the building of debt the amount was raised in less than a quarter of an hour.

It is certainly to be hoped that the promoters of the present boot and shoe factory enterprise will have better luck than that of the men who were the first to attempt to establish this important industry in Redwood City, and that they will seems to be a certainty, not that the pioneers were one whit less determined, but that present conditions are much more propitious. Originally started by Mason & Co., that firm gave up the struggle after a few months of discouraging experience. Then, it will be remembered, Dr. Merrill took hold of the waning fortunes of the concern and brought ruin upon himself in the attempt to sustain the manufacturing interests of the city. After the failure of Dr. Merrill, Wynn & Curtis of San Francisco, both practical boot and shoe men, were induced to give the factory another trial. For a little while their prospects seemed good and the people were jubilant, but it was soon found that the business would be compelled to depend largely upon the local trade which, although the home merchants gave their enthusiastic support, did not prove sufficient to sustain a paying business and after a few months struggle they gave up the attempt and the institutiou went out of business finally, the proprietors and their workmen returning to the metropolis.

The annual report of County Superintendent of Schools C. G. Warren for the year ending July 30th, 1874, showed the schools of the county to have been in excellent condition. At that time there were 24 school districts in the county with an attendance of 1,056 pupils, and in addition to this there were 293 attending private schools. The school census of the county indicated that there were 2115 children between the ages of 5 and 17, of which 4 were colored and 3 Indian. The total value of school property in the county was $45,172. At that time the average salary paid to male teachers was $72.50 per month, while teachers of the opposite sex were only considered worth an average of $59.79 per month.

And here is some more evidence that the population of the county was continuing to increase in a manner that bade well for its future: "Born, in Redwood City, September 10th, 1874, to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Rice, a daughter." "Born, in Menlo Park, August 31st, 1874, to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Doyle, a son."

A Thrifty Hungarian.

A certain Hungarian peasant named Jan Hirsch made a business trip to Budapest, and while there he had the idea of ordering a hundred visiting cards. When he returned home he found, to his dismay, that the cards bore the name of Mavisch instead of Hirsch. It was only a printer's error, but to Jan Hirsch it meant a loss of a shilling and sixpence unless he could make use of the cards. He accordingly purchased for the sum of a shilling an official form of petition and filled it with a request to be allowed to alter his name to Mavisch. His prayer was granted. He is now Jan Mavisch.—London News.

Lucky.

"Benoit, did you break the water bottle?"

"Yes, madame, but fortunately I broke it into only three pieces."

"Fortunately! How's that fortunate?"

"Oh, madame, when a thing breaks into many pieces it is so hard to pick them all up!"—Paris Journal.

The Producer.

"Does your husband play poker?"

"I don't know," answered young Mrs. Torkins. "From what I hear he simply sits up to the table and enjoys seeing other people contend for what he puts up."—Washington Star.

FICTION AND FACT.

Dreams of Authors That Have Been Turned Into Realities.

The delver among old books often finds, says the Berlin Umschau, prophecies made by writers which in their day were nothing but romance. This can be so easily observed by reading the works of Jules Verne, and there are also books in which airships, the telephone, photography and the motor wagon have been spoken of generations before these were accomplished facts. A novel entitled "Der Kluge Mann," published by Voss & Co., Leipsic, 1795, by an author named Cramer shows a Roentgen picture. The story tells of the Countess Adillinia, who gave her heart to the knight Gibello. The knightly lover was thoughtless enough, however, to kill his ladylove's father, and her affection turned to hatred, and she vowed to kill him. In a dream she saw the man who had fascinated her, and she stood ready to kill him, when suddenly his form changed, and before her stood a grinning skeleton, saying, "I have already been punished." This scene is illustrated in the old book, and the picture is not unlike a Roentgen photograph, but when it was published no one probably would have believed that science within a comparatively short time would make it possible to produce this picture, which the author's imagination invented.

JUDGING A CIGAR.

The Only Real Way to Find Its Quality Is to Smoke It.

On no point is the average smoker so ill informed as that of judging a cigar. Nine times out of ten, upon being handed a cigar, he will hold it to his nose, unlighted, sniff at the wrapper with a critical air and deliver his verdict in a self satisfied manner. This characteristic maneuver is always a source of amusement to any tobacco man who happens to observe it. There is only one way to ascertain the quality of a cigar, and that is to smoke it. No expert will pass judgment on a cigar until he has lighted it and smoked it well down toward the middle. The first and most important point upon which he bases his opinion is the "burn." Tobacco may have every other virtue, but if it does not hold the fire and burn evenly it is poor tobacco. Next in order of importance comes the aroma—the smoke must have a pleasing "smell;" next comes the flavor—the smoke must be smooth and not "scratchy" or bitter. Then there is the color—rich brown, indicating a ripe leaf, well cured—and last is workmanship—good if the wrapper is put on smoothly and the "bunch" is made so that the cigar "draws" freely and is neither too hard nor too spongy, bad if the reverse.—Bohemian Magazine.

ROMANCE OF HISTORY.

These Things Read Like Legends, but Are Matters of Fact.

A peasant girl called half witted did promise to defeat the victors of Agincourt and did it; it ought to be a legend, but it happens to be a fact. A poet and a poetess did fall in love and eloped secretly to a sunny clime; it is obviously a three volume novel, but it happened. Nelson did die in the act of winning the one battle that could change the world; it is a grossly improbable coincidence, but it is too late to alter it now. Napoleon did win the battle of Austerlitz; it is unnatural, but it is not my fault. When the general who had surrendered a republican town returned, saying easily, "I have done everything," Robespierre did ask, with an air of inquiry, "Are you dead?" When Robespierre coughed in his cold harangue Garnier did say, "The blood of Danton chokes you." Strafford did say of his own desertion of parliament, "If I do it may my life and death be set on a hill for all men to wonder at." Disraeli did say, "The time will come when you shall hear me."

The heroic is a fact, even when it is a fact of coincidence or of miracle, and a fact is a thing which can be admitted without being explained.—G. K. Chesterton in London News.

No Drums In the Middle Ages.

As we come to the middle ages, when the nations of modern Europe were struggling into existence, we find that at first the drum was not used at all. So, although melody had been known and practiced for many centuries, rhythm had been quite forgotten, for what there is left to us of the music of the middle ages contains no bars, and we know that it was slowly and monotonously chanted without the least accent.

In the eleventh century, however, things began to improve, more particularly as the crusaders brought into Europe all sorts of percussion instruments from the east. Various kinds of drums, tambourines and cymbals were then seen in Europe for the first time since the days of savages, and they have been used, with very little change, ever since.—St. Nicholas.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

Now We Should Get Together.

The preliminary contest is over. Members of the Republican party of San Mateo county have fought out their family differences at the polls.

By the will of the majority—assisted, undoubtedly, by a considerable sprinkling of Democrats—the candidates of the party have been chosen. The time has now arrived when minor differences should be laid aside and all should unite for the good of the common cause, when every man who has claimed allegience to the Republican party in the past should rally to its standard. This we have the faith to believe they will do.

With many candidates in the field, each with an earnest following of friends and supporters the contest has of necessity been a strenuous one. Some hard words may have been spoken and some bitterness of feeling may have been engendered. To expect that it should have been otherwise would be to hope that men were more than human. This should now be buried with the forgotten past. Honest in our own opinions, we should accord ther same honesty to others.

While the ticket as a whole is not entirely the choice of this paper, it nevertheless is admittedly a good one and will receive its full and hearty support. No good reason can be advanced why the candidates of the Republican party selected at the primaries last Tuesday should not receive the earnest support of every true Republican of the county. All of them are good men, of well known probity of character and abundant ability to fill acceptably the offices to which they aspire. Certain it is that their opponents on the Democratic ticket are in no sense better men, and in many instances not nearly their equals. Equally certain it is that in the past the county has prospered under Republican rule and nothing is to be gained by turning the shaping of its affairs over to the uncertain care of the Democrats. Experiences of the past have demonstrated that this can be tried only with unsatisfactory, if not disastrous results.

Hiram Johnson for Governor.

By a most decisive majority the Republicans of the state have selected Hiram Johnson as the candidate of the party for the high office of Governor. With the causes which lead up to this selection, we have at this time nothhing to consider. Mr. Johnson has been selected as the standard bearer of the party and as such is entitled to, and we believe will receive the hearty support of every true Republican. That he is thoroughly qualified to fill the office to which he has been nominated by the members of his party no man can question.

The Times-Gazette earnestly advocated the nomination of Charles F. Curry for the reason that it believed him to be, under existing circumstances the most available man for the place; because it believed that his large public experience and honorable record well fitted him for the office of Governor. Now that another selection has been made, this journal will accord to Mr. Johnson the same hearty support which it would have expected from the supporters of Mr. Johnson had Mr. Curry been selected as the leader. Fortunately for the Republican Party and for the people of the State, there was no question as to eithea the ability or integrity of either candidote and all can honestly and heartily unite in the support of the choice of the party.

Now Do Business.

Now that the excitement of the primary campaign is over no time should be lost in completing arrangements for the location of the shoe factory in this city. This important matter should be definitely settled before the attention of our people is again distracted by the contentions of the final political contest.

There should be no difficulty and but little delay in securing the necessary money to make certain of the location in Redwood City of this important enterprise Its commercial no question that the investment will value is admitted by all, there is prove a profitable one for the city. There is abundant public confidence in the men who have been selected to take charge of the business arrangement.. That they will secure an absolute business guarantee of good faith on the part of the factory owners before the money required is called for there can be no question. All that now remains is to subscribe the necessary amount.. If each citizen of Redwood City will but do his duty to himself and his home city, this should be done within a very short time.

Mrs. E. F. Fitzpatrick, Miss Jessie and Joe Fitzpatrick returned on Thursday from a visit of three weeks at Santa Cruz.

From the People.

Editor Times-Gazette: Although not a candidate for office but on account of active participation at the late primary in the interest of friends and those whom I believed to be capable and worthy I desire to state that my position is and will continue to be as it has always been, thatt of humble submission to the will of the majority. The primary gave ample opportunity for fair and impartial decision on the part of the electors who have spoken and neither Republican nor Democrat have reason for complaint. I am happy in the result which has proved that virtue and deserved popularity reaps its own reward and now that we Republicans have had the liberty to contend, in a friendly way, within our own political family the contest has closed leawing me possessed of no bitterness toward any one and without regrets of any kind with the full determination to do all in my power, in my limited sphere and humble capacity to bring about the success of the Republican party at our next regular election in November. Very respectfully,

JOHN E. COWGILL.

When will the citizens of Redwood City awaken to the fact that they themselves are the cauuse of Redwood City being a dead town.

With the facilities that are hers Redwood should be one of the foremost cities of this state. Why is she not? Because the people have an idea they must continue to live and do business in the same manner as their fathers and grand fathers have done. When a new comer comes to town, and we've had quite a few recently, why don't we give them the glad hand, and try to encourage them to be one of us, in place of telling them, "You can't do so and so, your new in this town, we've lived here so and so many years and things are going to remain as they have been." Why don't the business men call on a new business man and try to have him interested in Redwood doings? Why don't they endeavor to make both social and business life more congenial and help in place of hinder the new comers?

We need new blood in this town to mingle with the good old stock so that our boys will grow up and remain here both for the social and business lifef in place of going to the city. The more people we leave go away from here the worse it is for us. The more new ones we can get the better it is for us. For it means just so many more dollars put into circulation for each of us—and it is the duty of every citizen Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer and family and have them help us BOOST Redwood City and not knock it. Many of you may not know that the above facts are as they are, but nevertheless this is the cause of outsiders saying Redwood City is a dead town. Lack of push, congeniality and the freezing of would be new citizens. Can we not remedy this? We can, so awake.

A FRIEND OF REDWOOD CITY.

PESCADERO NOTES

Where to spend the approaching holiday. Where to enjoy Labor Day, and meet your friends, are questions which need not agitate the minds of any reader of this paper. The problem is easily solved—go to Tanforan Park. Yes go to Tanforan Park where the boys and girls of your youth will be assembled—and grow young at the sight of all the mirth and frolic and games, plus aviation, and other sports then and there presented.

The prizes for the gate are valuable also the prizes for athletic sports and added to this is the very appreciative quality—thorough order.

Direct Answers.

The negroes of Africa are simple and direct in speech. It never occurs to them, writes Mr. R. H. Milligan in "The Jungle Folk In Africa," that the purpose of language is to conceal thought, and to commiserate the African for his color is a waste of sympathy. In illustration of this Mr. Milligan gives an amusing conversation with one of his pupils. One day when I was talking to Bojedi something in the course of the conversation prompted me to ask him whether he would like to be a white man. He replied respectfully but emphatically in the negative. I wished to know his reason. He hesitated to tell me, but I was insistent, and at last he replied:

"Well, we think that we are better looking."

I gasped when I thought of the vastly ill looking faces I had seen in the jungles, and in apology for myself I said:

"But you have not seen us in our own country, where there is no malaria and where we are not yellow and green."

He quietly asked what color we were in our own country, to which I promptly replied, "Pink and white."

Looking at me steadily for a moment, he remarked:

"Mr. Milligan, if I should see you in your own country I don't believe I should know you."

Long Winded Preachers.

Dean Lefroy, who expressed the opinion that ten minutes is long enough for a sermon, would have met with scant sympathy from some divines of past centuries, says the Westminster Gazette.

Thomas Hooker considered three hours a fair average allowance for a sermon, though, on one occasion, when he was ill, he let his congregation off more lightly. Pausing at the end of fifteen minutes, he rested awhile and then continued his homily for two hours longer. Cranmer's sermons were each a small book when set up in type, and Baxter, Knox, Bunyan and Calvin rarely reached "Lastly, my brethren," under two hours.

George Herbert once said: "The parson exceeds not an hour in preaching, because all ages have thought that a competency," but a certain rector of Bilbury, Gloucestershire, was of another opinion, for he never sat down under two hours. The squire, we learn, usually withdrew after the text was announced, smoked his pipe outside and returned for the blessing.

Revenge In Ceylon.

A system of Cingalese "black magic" peculiar to the island is still practiced in some parts of Ceylon. It is stated that there are 4,440 different methods of causing ill to others. Here is a translation of one of these methods of dealing with your enemy:

"On Sunday eleven peya"—one peya equals twenty-four English minutes—"after sunrise Yama Devi"—the god of death and judgment—"goes to the west. Start at this hour; take a meal of bluish rice; dress in red colored garments.

"Take a root of ginger at the time of the zodiac of Aries; write on it the name of your rival, charm it 108 times, wrap it in a golden colored cloth and place it in your waist.

"When you meet your rival, look straight into his face and break the root in your hand. Within nine peyas he will be killed by an elephant, and when seven months elapse six other persons of his family will meet their doom."—Ceylon National Review.

A Gale by Another Name.

Doubtless there were many puzzled readers when a deep sea skipper rolled into this harbor a few days ago and reported that his ship had been belated by a gale which had piped up to 'force 10." "Force 10," it was explained, meant something like a hurricane. It is a term borrowed from the Beaufort scale, a scheme of wind measurements devised by the British admiral Beaufort before the days of ocean going steam. Force 1 was a calm, force 2 a light breeze, and so on up to the hurricane velocity. Perhaps, too, the Beaufort scale may give a clew to those who have been wondering for some time at the title of a popular German picture. It is just one expanse of frowning cloud and storm tossed billow, and the artist has named it "windstarke 10, 11."—New York Sun.

Digging For Money.

The honest workman was engaged in excavating operations—i. e., he was digging. The stray wayfarer of the inquisitive turn of mind stopped for a moment to look on.

"My man," said the S. W. at length, "what are you digging for?"

The H. W. looked up.

"Money," he replied.

"Money?" ejaculated the amazed S. W. "And when do you expect to strike it?"

"Saturday," replied the H. W. and resumed operations.

Wasted Effort.

Kind Old Lady (talking to a tramp)—Have you ever made an effort to get work?

Tramp—Yes, ma'am. Last month I got work for two members of my family, but neither of them would take it. —London Telegraph.

His Periodical.

"Do you take any periodicals?" asked the new clergyman on his first round of parish visits.

"Well, I don't," replied the woman, "but my husband takes 'em frequent. I do wish you'd try to get him to sign the pledge!"

We do not know how cheap the seeds of happiness are or we should scatter them oftener.—Lowell.

A Busy Holiday.

"Naw, I don't think Timmy 'll be stayin' long on this new job he's took up wid," said Mrs. Herlihy. "'Tis too harrd fer him. Sure, he gets no rist at all from Monda' mornin' till Sathurda' night, and 'tis not what the man's used to."

"He has his Sundays to rist in," hazarded the caller boldly.

"An' what o' that?" said Mrs. Herlihy. "On Sunda's he has to go to church an' take the children to their grandmama's an' visit wid his coosins an' all—'tis no rist at all."

"'Twas wan day out of ivery fortnit he had wid the ould job, wa'n't it?" queried the caller.

"It was," said Mrs. Herlihy, "an' 'twas a grand vacation he had. I'd save ivery bit o' the washin', and he'd wring it out fine an' hang it on the line for me; thin he'd saw an' shplit wood enough to last till the nixt vacation day, an' he'd bate ivery mat in the house an' shine up the faucets an' the b'iler an' wash the windys, an' there'd always be some little exthra help, drivin' nails or the like, he cud give me.

"An' whin he'd go to his bed at night he'd niver fail to say to me, 'Well, Celia, my vacation day is over, but I feel like it's made me ready to go back to wurrk tomorrer,' he'd say." —Youth's Companion.

A Great Mystery.

There is one great mystery in God's universe—somewhere flows a fountain of life, where is one of God's secrets. How far its waters flow we cannot tell. No human feet have tracked its streams in their wanderings. The Father has decreed that we must drink of it to live, and yet he blinds our eyes with sleep before he lets us drink. When we awake the strength of the stream is in us, and so we make the journey of the day. And the strange waters have strange powers. Soul darkness and despair are melted in them; fear and trouble shrivel; hope and strength are held in sweet solution in their wakes. Worn and weary with the care and fret, closing her eyes as the tired lids fall in the gloom of night, the faint mother slips into the stream of sleep, and then in a little while the morning comes, and a new woman looks out upon the day with the secret of a new creation in her soul, new power and courage born of the waters of life.—Sturgis (Ky.) News-Democrat.

"Humble Pie."

Originally the term "humble pie" carried no opprobrious meaning. The pie was one made out of the "humbles" or "numbles," from the Norman French "nombrils"—i. e., the entrails of a deer. To this day it is highly esteemed in Scotland and in northern parts of England. So late as the time of Pepys "umble pie" was served as part of the menu of a gentleman's table on an extraordinary occasion. Some writers derive the contumelious use of the phrase "to eat humble pie" from an alleged custom of serving "umble pie" below the salt, or at the second table. But this is not supported by authority. It more probably came into use simply through the similarity of sound, there being no similarity of meaning whatever between the noun umbles or numbles and the adjective humble.

The Law of Gravitation.

In 1609—seventy-seven years before the publication of Newton's "Principia"—Shakespeare in the play of "Troilus and Cressida," act 4, scene 2, makes one of his characters say:

Do to this body what extremity you can,
But the strong base and building of my love
Is as the very center of the earth,
Drawing all things to it.

This would seem to look very like the announcement of the law of gravity, and yet nothing can possibly be truer than the fact that the great poet did not in any substantial sense anticipate the philosopher. Between Shakespeare's fancy and the scientific triumph of Newton there is an infinite difference.—New York American.

Moral Courage.

A schoolteacher once told her class that the courage which makes us do what we think right, regardless of the sneers of others, was moral courage, the best kind.

"Then if a boy has a box of candy, like me yesterday," said a lad, "and if he eats it all himself, without giving any to people that have no right to it, no matter how much they call him mean and stingy, that there's moral courage, ain't it, teacher?"

The Time Not Ripe.

Anxious Patron—Doctor, don't you think you'd better call in some other physicians for consultation? Family Doctor (cheerfully)—Oh, no; not yet. There is still some hope.—New York Weekly.

Endurance Test.

"What do they mean by an endurance test?"

"Two chaps bragging about their respective makes of automobile."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Gallant.

Beautiful Widow—Do you know, I'm forty years old today?"

Gallant Bachelor—Madam, you are twenty. I never believe more than half of what I hear.

Corrected.

Miss Kitty—Before you were married, Mrs. Blunt, did your husband bring you many flowers? Mrs. Blunt—I didn't have any husband before I was married, dear.

Pessimism leads to weakness; optimism leads to power.—William James.

An Adventure in the Surf on the West Coast of Africa.

West Africa is known to all navigators for its few harbors and its heavy surf, which at certain seasons rages like a battle, defying the white man who would approach its shores. The author of "The Jungle Folk of Africa," Mr. R. H. Milligan, tells of a successful, and to the observers an amusing, effort to reach shore at a point where the surf did not seem to be impossible.

One day when the beach seemed much better than usual the captain and the ship's surgeon ventured ashore. The captain afterward narrated the adventure of their landing to a small but enthusiastic audience. He said that after waiting outside the surf half an hour the headman suddenly gave the order, and in a moment they were in the breakers, riding on the top of one of them and speeding toward the shore at the rate of "seventy miles an hour."

The captain was in the bow of the boat, well braced and cushioned. But when the boat struck the beach with the force of a railway collision the doctor was thrown violently over two thwarts into the captain's bosom, whom he clasped about the neck with a steel-like grip.

The next moment another breaker picked the boat up and hurled it upon the beach, throwing both captain and doctor to a perfectly safe distance, where they sprawled upon the sand. The doctor, still hugging the captain's neck and very much frightened, exclaimed:

"Oh, captain, dear captain, is there anybody killed but you and me?"

BRAVE SOLDIERS.

Sacrificed Their Lives In an Attempt to Save the Colors.

In days gone by the Zulus were the boldest fighters among all the natives of South Africa, and it was not until they had been defeated in several battles that they would live in peace with white people.

In 1878 15,000 of the Zulus attacked and killed a regiment of British soldiers, and a most heroic deed was the attempt made by three British soldiers to save the two flags, or colors, belonging to the regiment.

When it was seen that the Zulus were so many that there was no hope of keeping them at bay the colonel of the British regiment called to a young officer whose name was Lieutenant Melvill and said, "You will take charge of the colors, Melvill, and try to get away from here."

The lieutenant saluted and took into his hands the two colors of his regiment. Then, with another officer and a soldier, all mounted on horses, he suddenly dashed away with his precious burden.

They were at once seen by the keen sighted Zulus, however, and after a long chase the three gallant Englishmen, fighting to the last, were killed by the enemy.

Some time afterward one of the flags was found near a rocky stream, where the heroes had fought and died, and it was taken to England and presented to Queen Victoria.

And in memory of the three brave soldiers who had died while defending it the queeen placed a wreath of immortelles on the staff which held the flag.—London Mail.

Paganini's Cab.

On awakening one morning at his hotel in Vienna, Paganini, the celebrated violinist, was informed that the cabman whom the previous evening he had employed to drive him to the concert hall where he was playing was waiting to see him. On being admitted to his presence the man, after having advanced poverty and a large family as an excuse for the request that he was about to make, prayed the great musician to make his fortune. "What do you mean?" demanded Paganini. "Authorize me to write in large letters on the back of my vehicle these two words, 'Paganini's Cab,'" was the answer. Consent was given, with altogether satisfactory results.

He (meekly)—Well, if that is the case, all I've got to say is I'm mighty glad—

She (breaking in)—Glad?

He—Yes. Glad I'm not a polygamist. Er—um—looks a trifle squally over to the northeast, doesn't it, Miranda?—New York Times.

"Lincoln," said a senator at a banquet in Washington, "had no great admiration for mere financial success.

Diplomacy.

"Why do you insist on underrating the kind of golf you play?"

"Because," answered the wise official, "there is no use of making a whole lot of people jealous and antagonistic over a little thing like golf."—Exchange.

SUNDAYS BY APPOINTMENT

GAVE THE SALUTE.

The Old Soldier Obeyed the Command of the Young Officer.

At Siboney during the Spanish-American war a young lieutenant of a volunteer regiment was officer of the guard one day, and as he was strutting about in his new khaki uniform he noticed a man dressed in what looked like the cast off clothes of a private soldier coming toward him

The man was apparently fifty-five to sixty years old, of dark complexion with hair and mustache streaked with gray, and was clad in a faded blue army shirt, open at the neck, khaki trousers covered with mud tucked into boots in the same condition and a gray campaign hat much the worse for wear and having several holes cut in it for ventilating purposes.

He was strolling along, with his hands in his pockets, and passed the young lieutenant without a salute or a sign of recognition of his rank.

This was more than the young officer's dignity could stand, and he stopped the man with a sharp "Halt there!"

The man halted and faced about, and the lieutenant asked:

"Are you in the army?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Regulars or volunteers?"

"Regulars, sir."

"Haven't you been in the service long enough to know that it is customary to salute when you meet an officer in uniform?"

"I know that, sir, but down here we've sort of overlooked salutes and ceremony."

"Well, I haven't, and I want you to understand it. Now, attention!"

The man stood at attention.

"Salute!"

The salute was given.

"How long have you been in the service?"

"About thirty-five years, sir."

"Well, you have learned something about army regulations and customs this morning. Remember who gave you the lesson and when you meet me in uniform salute. I am Lieutenant —— of the ——. Now, what's your name and regiment?"

The man who had received the lesson had been smiling slightly under his mustache. Now he straightened up, saluted again and replied:

"General Adna R. Chaffee, sir, commanding the —th division."

When the dazed lieutenant found the use of his tongue again and began to excuse himself the old general said kindly:

"That's all right, my boy. You were right. Of course you didn't know. I suppose I do look pretty rough, and an enlisted man should salute an officer, even if we do overlook it sometimes. Always stick as closely to regulations as that and you will make a good officer."

The old soldier nodded pleasantly to the still bewildered young man and walked away.—New York Times.

About three years ago they were first used in our family, when we lived in Buffalo, N. Y. Their use in my case brought prompt and positive relief from pain and lameness in the back and other distressing difficulties due to weak kidneys. To say the least, the results were gratifying. CITY TRUSTEES RURH BUSINESS

Town Trustees Affected by Excitement of Primary Contests.

But little business was transacted at the meeting of the Council on Monday evening beyond the disposing of routine matters that could not well be put off. All the Trustees except Beeger, who was still on his vacation ,were present, but seemingly the members of the board were anxious to be fresh for the primary election contest the next day and none were inclined to remain longer than was absolutely necessary. Thus matters which indicated lengthy consideration were by tacit consent put over to an adjourned meeting Thursday evening when full time could be devoted to their consideration, one of the chief of these being the determination of the financial budget for the coming fiscal year.

The usual monthly reports of the city officers were presented and after acceptance were ordered placed on fill. The report of Treasurer Frank Towne showed the collections for the month to have been as follows: For water rates, $878.68; licenses, $47.00; sewer connections, $2.50; water connections, $66.00. There is a balance of $8323.95 in the general fund.

A. M. Robertson asked that another appraisement be made of the value of his property required for the extension of Phelps street, stating that he had been informed by H. C. Tuchsen, one of the appraisers named by the Council, had stated that the original appraisement had been made by the committee on a misunderstanding of the proposed lines of the new street. Mr. Robertson had no objection to make to the men who had made the orig nal appraisem nt and stated that he would be satisfied with the reappointment of the same committee now that permanent stakes had been set for the street and the valuations could be determined with a proper understanding. What he desired was a fair appraisement which might serve as a basis for a proper understanding between himself and the Council. This proposal met with the approval of the Trustees and the finance committee was authorized to arrange for a reappraisement by the same committee —H. C. Tuchsen, C. G Landscheit and George W. Lovie.

No objections were made to the work of contractors T. C. Rice and Hess, McGarvey and Kreiss in the improvement of streets in district No. 13, in Dingee Park, and their work was accepted and claims allowed as follows: T. C. Rice, $3,428.71; Hess McGarvey and Kreiss, $1890.20.

Notice was given of the completion of further work in district No. 14, and the clerk was directed to give notice that objections to the work would be heard August 29th.

The Gas and Electric Company presented deeds and resolutions of transfer of the restored municipal lighting system to the city. These were laid over until a future time inorder that the matter might be given a careful consideration before final act ion was taken.

A map of a resubdivision of lot 46 of the Reese subdivision was approved and the portions of Sierra and Sequoia streets delineated on the map were accepted.

A map of a resubdivision of a portion of lot 10 of the Wooster,Whitton and Montgomery tract was also approved.

Trustee Hynding reported that after investigation he did not consider it advisable that any reduction should be made in the amount of oil to be used in the repair of Mound street. He had found that the reduction in the amount of oil would make but an insignificant difference in the cost of the work, and experience in other places had shown that the amount of oil required in the specifications was not too much for a first-class street. Upon his motion the contract for the repair of the street was awarded to Hess, McGarvey and Kreiss at the original bid.

An adjournment was taken until Thursday evenng, with the hope of then being able to dispose of several important matters. Apparently, however, the Trustees had not had time to recover from the effects of the general excitement in the time allowed as no quorum appeared at the time set and the meeting went over again until Monday evening.

The suit of the Town of Burlingame against H. H. Taylor that has been pending in the Superior Court for some time was heard Thursday by Judge Dooling sitting for Judge Buck and submitted and to be argued on briefs. The suit was commenced by the municipality to eject Mr. Taylor from a strip of land on Burlingame square. The town claims ownership while the defendant makes a similar claim. Ross and Ross appeared for Taylor while Attorneys Davis and Treadwell represented the town of Burlingame.

At a meeting held Friday, Aug. 19th, the Redwood Holding Company elected the following officers: E. F. Fitzpatrick, president; Geo. W. Lovie, vice president; D. R. Stafford, treasurer, and A. Kincaid secretary.

The company is formed to take care of the matter of locating the shoe factory here, and an active campaign for subscriptions will immediately be begun.

The Raiders

On Wednesday evening, August 24th., the young men and ladies of Menlo Park Parish will produce a smart little military play of four acts called the "Raiders" This play whilst not founded primarily on military achievement, yet has its origin in a famous incident that took place during the civil war. This incident was the famous raid of General Morgan into Indiana who in the summer of 1863 crossed the Ohio river and raided the Hoosier state. The state of affairs occasioned by the civil war, will always remain amongst the most unique in history, oftimes pitting brother again st brother and father against son in that dreadful conflict. It is not surprising that its most striking incidents have suggested themes both for the novelist and the dramatist.

Passed the Senate, March 8, A. D. 1909. Lewis A. Hilborn, Secretary of the Senate.

Passed the Assembly, March 15, A. D. 1909. Clio Lloyd, Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

This bill was received by the Governor this 19th day of March, A. D. 1909, at 11 o'clock A. M. E. C. Cooper, Private Secretary of the Governor.

CHAPTER 320. An act to provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the improvement of San Francisco harbor by the construction by the board of state harbor commissioners of wharves, piers, state railroad, spurs, betterments, and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith in the city and county of San Francisco; to create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; to define the duties of state officers in relation thereto; to make an appropriation of five thousand dollars for the expense of printing said bonds; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing a fund for the payment of the indebtedness hereby authorized to be incurred by the board of state harbor commissioners for the erection of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith in the city and county of San Francisco, at a cost not to exceed nine million dollars (which said wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith the board of state harbor commissioners are hereby empowered to construct and do in the manner, authorized by law, and at a cost not to exceed said nine million dollars), the state treasurer shall, immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, provided for in section 10 hereof, prepare nine thousand suitable bonds of the State of California, in the denomination of one thousand dollars each. The whole issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of nine million dollars, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, from the date of issuance thereof, and both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the present standard value, and they shall be payable at the office of the state treasurer, at the expiration of seventy-four years from their date, subject, however, to redemption by lot as in this act hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall bear date the second day of July, A. D. nineteen hundred and eleven, and shall be made payable on the second day of July, nineteen hundred and eighty-five. The interest accruing on such of said bonds as are sold, shall be due and payable at the office of the state treasurer on the second day of January, and on the second day of July, of each year after the sale of the same; provided, that the first payment of interest shall be made on the second day of July, nineteen hundred and twelve, on so many of said bonds as may have been theretofore sold. Upon the expiration of seventy-four years from the date of said bonds, all bonds sold shall cease to bear interest and likewise all bonds redeemed by lot shall cease to bear interest as in this act provided, and the said state treasurer shall call in, forthwith pay and cancel the same, out of the moneys in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund provided for in this act, and, thereafter on the first Monday of July, nineteen hundred and eighty-five, also cancel and destroy all bonds not theretofore sold. All bonds issued shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the controller, and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer and the said bonds shall be so signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the second day of July, 1911, and each of said bonds shall have the seal of the state stamped thereon. The said bonds signed, countersigned and endorsed and sealed as herein provided when sold shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, though the sale thereof be made at a date or dates after the person signing, countersigning and endorsing, or any or either of them, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of such office or offices. Each bond shall contain a clause that it is subject to redemption by lot after the year nineteen hundred and fifty.

SEC. 2. Interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds, so that such coupons may be removed without injury to, or mutilation of the bond. Said coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the second day of July, 1911. But no interest on any of said bonds shall be paid for any time which may intervene between the date of any of said bonds and the issue and sale thereof to a purchaser, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such sale.

SEC. 3. The sum of five thusand dollars is hereby appropriated to pay the expense that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared. Said amount shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the board of state harbor commissioners, and approved by either the governor of the state or mayor of the city and county of San Francisco, who shall only approve the same when in their judgment the actual harbor receipts, and those reasonably anticipated, will justify such sale of bonds and the consequent increased burden on harbor receipts; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and he may, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the date fixed for such sale. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expenses and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each sale so advertised. The cost of such publication shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Fund" and must be used exclusively for the construction of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith on the water front of the city and county of

The amount that shall have been paid at the sale of said bonds as accrued interest on the bonds sold shall be, by the state treasurer, immediately after such sale, paid into the treasury of the state and placed in the "Second San Francisco Seawall Sinking Fund."

SEC. 5. For the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds a sinking fund, to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Sinking Fund" shall be, and the same is hereby created, as follows, to wit: The state treasurer, after the second day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, shall on the first day of each and every month thereafter, after the sale of said bonds, take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund such sum as, multiplied by the time in months, the bonds then sold and outstanding have to run, will equal the principal of the bonds sold and outstanding at the time said treasurer shall so take said sum from said San Francisco harbor improvement fund, less the amount theretofore taken therefrom for said purpose; and he shall place the sum in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund created by this act. Said state treasurer shall, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose, employ the moneys in said sinking fund in the purchase of bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities of the State of California, which said bonds shall be kept in a proper receptacle, appropriately labeled; but he must keep always on hand a sufficient amount of money in said sinking fund with which to pay the interest on such of the state bonds herein provided to be issued as may have theretofore been sold. And to provide means for the payment of interest on the bonds that may be sold and outstanding, said treasurer shall monthly take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, and pay into said seawall sinking fund created by this act, an amount equal to the monthly interest then due on all bonds then sold, delivered and outstanding. The board of state harbor commissioners are hereby authorized and directed by the collection of dockage, tolls, rents, wharfage and cranage to collect a sum of money sufficient for the purposes of this act, over and above the amount limited by section two thousand five hundred and twenty-six of the Political Code of the State of California. Between the first and tenth day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen and between the first and tenth day of May of each year thereafter until the maturity of said bonds, the said treasurer shall, in the presence of the governor, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust, as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund at that time, and shall thereupon and before the tenth day of June following, give notice by public advertisement to be inserted twice a week for two weeks in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, stating the number of bonds so drawn and that the principal of said bonds will be paid on presentation to the treasurer on or before the second day of July, following, and that from and after such last named date, all interest upon bonds thus drawn shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer as soon as said bonds so drawn by lot are surrendered to him and paid to cancel the same, and the interest coupons thereon, and each year beginning with the year nineteen hundred and fifty-one, the said treasurer shall, in the manner aforesaid, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund, and proceed in the manner hereinabove stated. After the payment of all said bonds, the surplus or balance remaining said sinking fund, if any there be, shall forthwith be paid into the San Francisco harbor improvement fund. At the time of the respective drawings by lot, as aforesaid, and also at the maturity of said state bonds, said treasurer shall sell the United States or other bonds then in said sinking fund, at governing market rates, after advertising the sale thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and shall use the proceeds for the payment of such bonds as may be drawn by lot, and at the maturity of said bonds outstanding shall pay and redeem said matured outstanding bonds out of said moneys in said fund in extinguishment of said bonds on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 6. The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the interest of said bonds, when the same falls due, out of the sinking fund provided for in this act, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and ten, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, nineteen hundred and ten, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and at the end thereof, the words, "For the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1909," and in the same square under said words the following, in brevier type: "This act provides for the improvement of San Francisco harbor and for the payment of all costs thereof out of the 'San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund.'" The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

SEC. 10. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

SEC. 11. CHAPTER 383. An act authorizing the construction, acquisition, maintenance and control of a system of state highways in the State of California; specifying the work, fixing the payments to be made by counties for moneys expended therein; providing for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the construction and acquisition of such system; creating a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A system of state highways in and for the State of California shall be constructed and acquired as and in the manner provided by law by the department of engineering of said state at a cost not to exceed eighteen million dollars. For the purpose of providing for the payment of the cost of the construction or acquisition of said system of said highways, the State of California is hereby authorized to incur an indebtedness in the manner provided by this act in the sum of eighteen million dollars.

Immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, as provided in section 10 of this act, the treasurer of the state shall prepare eighteen thousand suitable bonds of the State of California in the denomination of one thousand dollars each, to be numbered from 1 to 18,000 inclusive, and to bear the date of the third day of July, 1911. The total issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of eighteen million dollars and they shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the date of issuance thereof. The said bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of value at the office of the treasurer of said state at the times and in the manner following, to wit: The first four hundred of said bonds shall be due and payable on the third day of July, 1917, and four hundred of said bonds in consecutive numerical order shall be due and payable on the third day of July, 1918, and each and every year thereafter until and including the third day of July, 1961. The interest accruing on all of said bonds that shall be sold shall be payable at the office of the treasurer of the state on the third day of January and the third day of July of each and every year after the sale of the same. The interest on all bonds issued and sold shall cease on the day of their maturity and the said bonds so issued and sold shall on the day of their maturity be paid as herein provided and canceled by the treasurer of said state. All bonds remaining unsold shall, at the date of the maturity thereof be by the treasurer of the state canceled and destroyed. All bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be signed by the governor of this state, countersigned by the state controller and endorsed by the state treasurer, and the said bonds shall be so signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the third day of July, 1911, and each of said bonds shall have the great seal of the State of California impressed thereon. The said bonds signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as herein provided, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, though the sale thereof be made at a date or dates after the person so signing, countersigning and endorsing, or either of them, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of said office or offices.

SEC. 2. Appended to each of said bonds there shall be interest coupons so attached that the same may be detached without injury to or mutilation of said bond. The said coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the third day of July, 1911. No interest shall be paid on any of said bonds for such time as may intervene between the date of said bond and the day of sale thereof, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such sale.

SEC. 3. There shall be provided in the general appropriation bill sufficient money to defray all expenses that shall be incurred by the state treasurer in the preparation of said bonds and in the advertising of the sale thereof, as in this act provided.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized by this act to be issued shall have been signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as in section one provided, the state treasurer shall sell the same in such parcels and numbers as the governor of the state shall direct, to the highest bidder for cash. The governor of the state shall issue to the state treasurer such direction, immediately after being requested so to do, through and by a resolution duly adopted and passed by a majority vote of the advisory board of the department of engineering. Said resolution shall specify the amount of money which, in the judgment of said advisory board shall be required at such time and the governor of the state shall direct the state treasurer to sell such number of said bonds as may be necessary to raise said amount of money and that said bonds shall be sold in consecutive numerical order commencing with the first four hundred thereof. The state treasurer shall not accept any bid which is less than the par value of the bond plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date. The state treasurer may at the time and place fixed by him for said sale continue such sale as to the whole or any part of the bonds offered to such time and place as he may at the time of such continuance designate. Before offering any of said bonds for sale, the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the date fixed for such sale. The state treasurer shall give notice of the time and place of sale by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco and in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week for four weeks next preceding the date fixed for such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expenses and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised.

There is hereby created in and for the state treasury a fund to be known and designated as the "State Highway Fund," and immediately after such sale of bonds the treasurer of the state shall pay into the state treasury and cause to be placed in said state highway fund the total amount received for said bonds, except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon. The amount that shall have been paid at such sale as accrued interest on the bonds sold shall be by the treasurer of the state, immediately after such sale, paid into the treasury of the state and placed in the interest and sinking fund.

The moneys placed in the state highway fund, pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be used exclusively for the acquisition of rights of way for and the acquisition and construction of said system of state highways. The route or routes of said state highways shall be selected by the department of engineering and said route shall be so selected and said highways so laid out and constructed or acquired as to constitute a continuous and connected state highway system running north and south through the state traversing the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and along the Pacific coast by the most direct and practicable routes, connecting the county seats of the several counties through which it passes and joining the centers of population, together with such branch roads as may be necessary to connect therewith the several county seats lying east and west of such state highway.

Moneys shall be drawn from said state highway fund for the purposes of this act upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands made by the department of engineering and audited by the state board of examiners.

SEC. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds, issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenue of the state as shall be required to pay the principal and interest of said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

The treasurer of the state shall, on the first day of January, 1912, and on the first day of each July and the first day of each January thereafter transfer from the general fund of the state treasury to the interest and sinking fund such an amount of the money by this act appropriated as shall be required to pay the interest on the bonds theretofore sold, together with the sum on all of said bonds so sold shall have been paid or shall have become due in accordance with the provisions of this act.

There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund to be known and designated as the "State Highway and Sinking Fund." The treasurer of the state shall on the first day of July of the year 1912, and on the first day of July, of each and every year thereafter in which a parcel of the bonds sold pursuant to the provisions of this act shall become due, transfer from the general fund of the state treasury to the state highway sinking fund such an amount of the appropriation made by this act as may be required to pay the principal of the bonds so becoming due and payable in such years.

SEC. 6. The principal of all of said bonds shall be paid at the time the same becomes due, from the state highway sinking fund, and the interest on all bonds sold shall be paid at the time said interest becomes due, from the interest and sinking fund. Both principal and interest shall be so paid upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands audited by the state board of examiners, and the faith of the State of California is hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of said bonds so sold, and the interest accruing thereon.

SEC. 7. The state controller and state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act and they shall transmit to the governor in triplicate an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder with an annual report, in triplicate, one copy of each to be by the governor, laid before each house of the legislature biennially. All books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature or a joint committee of both or any citizen of the state.

SEC. 8. The highway constructed or acquired under the provisions of this act shall be permanent in character and be finished with oil or macadam or a combination of both or of such other material as in the judgment of the said department of engineering shall be most suitable and best adapted to the particular locality traversed. The state department of engineering, in the name of the people of the State of California, may purchase, receive by donation or dedication, or lease any right of way, rock quarry or land necessary or proper for the construction, use or maintenance of said state highway and shall proceed, if necessary, condemning under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings any necessary or proper right of way, rock quarry or land. The department of engineering shall have full power and authority to purchase all supplies, material, machinery and to do all other things necessary or proper in the construction and maintenance of said state highway. With the exception of those public highways which have been permanently improved under county or permanent road division bond issues within three years prior to the adoption of this act; all public highways within this state lying within the right of way of said state highway as determined and adopted by the department of engineering shall be and the same shall become a part of the right of way of said state highway, without compensation being paid therefor; provided nothing herein contained shall require the state to maintain any highway along or on said right of way, prior to the completion or acquisition of the permanent improvements contemplated by this act. Whenever any money received from the sale of bonds, under the provisions of this act, shall be expended in any county in this state, such county must pay into the state treasury such sum each year as shall equal the interest at the rate of four per cent per annum, upon the entire sum of money expended within such county in the construction of said state highway, less such portion of said amount as the bonds matured under the provisions of this act, shall bear to the total number of bonds sold and outstanding. All highways constructed or acquired under the provisions of this act shall be permanently maintained and controlled by the State of California.

SEC. 9. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, 1910, as to all its provisions except those relating to, and necessary for, its submission to the people and for returning, canvassing and proclaiming the votes, and to such accepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 10. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election to be holden in the month of November, 1910, A. D., and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon, and at the end thereof, the words "For the state highway act"; and in a separate line, under the same, the words "Against the state highway act." Opposite said lines there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the state highway act," and all those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the state highway act." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

SEC. 11. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers, and if it appears that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof. But if a majority of the votes cast, as aforesaid, are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

SEC. 12. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten; the cost of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for the purpose.

SEC. 13. This act shall be known and cited as the "State Highway Act."

SEC. 14. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

The people of the State of California, represented in Senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing a fund for the payment of the indebtedness authorized to be incurred by the board of state harbor commissioners for the acquisition of the necessary area for a tidal basin, extending the area of India basin, on the water front of the city and county of San Francisco, as provided in an act entitled: "An act to authorize and direct the board of state harbor commissioners to institute condemnation proceedings against certain property in the India basin, and extending to Islais creek in the city and county of San Francisco, and extending the jurisdiction of said board over the same, and providing for the payment of judgments from the proceeds of bonds issued and sold under the provisions of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the acquisition by the board of state harbor commissioners, of a necessary area for a tidal basin, for wharves, docks, piers, harbors and appurtenances, in the city and county of San Francisco; to create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; and defining the duties of state officers in relation thereto; making an appropriation of one thousand dollars for the expense of printing said bonds; and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people,'" the state treasurer shall, immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, provided for in section 10 hereof, prepare one thousand suitable bonds of the State of California, in the denomination of one thousand dollars each. The whole issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of one million dollars, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, from the time of the sale thereof, the principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the present standard value, and they shall be payable at the office of the state treasurer, at the expiration of seventy-four years from their date, subject, however, to redemption by lot as in this act hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall bear date the second day of January, A. D. 1911, and shall be made payable on the second day of January, A. D. 1985. The interest accruing on such of said bonds as are sold, shall be due and payable at the office of the state treasurer, on the second day of January, and on the second day of July, of each year after the sale of the same; provided that the first payment of interest shall be made on the second day of January, A. D. 1912, on so many of said bonds as may have been theretofore sold. At the expiration of seventy-four years from the date of said bonds, all bonds sold shall cease to bear interest, and like amount of bonds redeemed by lot shall cease to bear interest, as in this act provided, and the said state treasurer shall call in, forthwith pay and cancel the same, out of moneys in the "India Basin Sinking Fund," provided for in this act, and, he shall, on the first Monday of January, A. D. 1985, also cancel and destroy all bonds not theretofore sold. All bonds issued shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the state controller, and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer, and each shall have the seal of the state stamped thereon. Each bond shall contain a clause that it is subject to redemption by lot after the year nineteen hundred and thirty-nine.

SEC. 2. Interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds, so that such coupons may be removed without injury to or mutilation of the bond. Said coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and shall be signed by the state treasurer. But no interest on any of said bonds shall be paid for any time which may intervene between the date of any of said bonds, and the issue and sale thereof to a purchaser.

SEC. 3. The sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to pay the expense that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared. Said amount shall be paid out of the "San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund," on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be sold by the state treasurer at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as said state treasurer shall determine; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered for sale, and he may by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, for good and sufficient cause, continue such sale as to the whole of the bonds offered or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select, not exceeding, however, sixty days. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds, and of the postponement of sale thereof, must be given by said treasurer by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. The costs of such publication shall be paid out of the "San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund" on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund to be known and designated as the "India Basin Fund," and must be used exclusively for the acquisition of the area described in the act referred to in section 1 hereof. Drafts and warrants upon said fund shall be drawn upon and shall be paid out of said fund in the same manner as drafts and warrants are drawn upon and paid out of the "San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund."

SEC. 5. For the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds a sinking fund to be known and designated as the "India Basin Sinking Fund" shall be, and the same is hereby created as follows, to wit: The state treasurer shall, on the first day of each and every month, after the second day of December, A. D. 1928, take from the "San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund," such sum as, multiplied by the time the bonds then sold and outstanding have to run, will equal the principal of the bonds sold and outstanding at the time said treasurer shall so take said sum from said "San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund," less the amount therefore taken therefrom for said purpose; and he shall place the sum in the "India Basin Sinking Fund," created by this act. Said state treasurer shall, on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose, employ the moneys in said sinking fund in the purchase of bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities of the State of California, which said bonds shall be kept in a proper receptacle, appropriately labeled; but he must always keep on hand a sufficient amount of money in said sinking fund with which to pay the interest on such of the state bonds herein provided to be issued as may have theretofore been sold; and to provide means for the payment of interest on the bonds that may be sold and outstanding, said treasurer shall monthly take from the San Diego harbor improvement fund, and pay into said seawall sinking fund, an amount equal to the monthly interest then due on all bonds then sold, delivered and outstanding. The board of state harbor commissioners of San Diego are hereby authorized and directed by the collection of dockage, tolls, rents, wharfage and cranage to collect a sum of money sufficient for the purposes of this act, over and above the amount limited by section two thousand five hundred and twenty-six of the Political Code of the State of California. Between the first and tenth day of November, in the year nineteen hundred and forty, and between the first and tenth day of November of each year thereafter, until the maturity of said bonds, the said treasurer shall, in the presence of the governor, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be, the amount in said sinking fund at that time, and shall thereupon and before the tenth day of December following, give notice by public advertisement to be inserted twice a week for two weeks in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, stating the number of bonds so drawn, and that the principal of said bonds shall be paid on presentation to the treasurer on or before the second day of January, following, and that from and after such last named date, all interest upon bonds thus drawn shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer as soon as said bonds so drawn by lot are surrendered to him and paid to cancel the same, and the interest coupons thereon, and each year beginning with the year nineteen hundred and forty, the said treasurer shall, in the manner aforesaid, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund, and proceed in the manner hereinabove stated. After the payment of all said bonds, the surplus or balance remaining said sinking fund, if any there be, shall forthwith be paid into the San Diego harbor improvement fund. At the time of the respective drawings by lot, as aforesaid, and also at the maturity of said state bonds, said treasurer shall sell the United States or other bonds then in said sinking fund, at governing market rates, after advertising the sale thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and shall use the proceeds for the payment of such bonds as may be drawn by lot, and at the maturity of said bonds outstanding shall pay and redeem said matured outstanding bonds out of said moneys in said fund in extinguishment of said bonds, on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 6. The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all of their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the interest of said bonds when the same falls due, out of the sinking fund provided for in this act, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California, for their ratification at the next general election to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon, and at the end thereof, the words, "For the India Basin Act," and in the same square, under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for the acquisition of a tidal basin in the bay of San Francisco for harbor purposes, and for the payment of all costs thereof out of the 'San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund.'" In the square immediately below the square containing said words, there shall be printed on said ballot, the words "Against the India Basin Act," and immediately below said words "Against the India Basin Act," in brevier type, shall be printed: "This act provides for the acquisition of a tidal basin in the bay of San Francisco, for harbor purposes, and for the payment of all costs thereof, out of the 'San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund.'" Opposite the words "For the India Basin Act," and "Against the India Basin Act," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the India Basin Act," and those voting against said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the India Basin Act." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

SEC. 10. The vote cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election, as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinabove provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.
